

STUDENT SOCIAL MEDIA POSITION

The College of Fine and Applied Arts (FAA) at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign seeks part-time student employee(s) to join our communications team. Students in this position will work closely with the FAA Communications and Marketing Office to enhance our storytelling efforts through social media.

Duties may include:

- Drafting, scheduling, and posting social media content
- Using tools like Hootsuite or Linktr.ee to help share content
- Engaging with social accounts from campus and other partners
- Attending various arts events to capture imagery for posts

Students will have the opportunity to be a part of a fun, energetic, creative team and gain experience in a professional environment. Students will be paid an hourly rate and expected to work 2-6 hours a week. The schedule is flexible and will be coordinated with the supervisor. Student appointments are paid positions and are not eligible for course credit. Interested students should email mseda2@illinois.edu and include a summary of their social media experience/interest and a resume (if possible).

QUALIFICATIONS

The ideal candidate for this position is creative, resourceful, and passionate about storytelling through social media. Students must be team players who enjoy working with people and feel comfortable in a creative and fast-paced environment. Experience with Instagram, Facebook, and Twitter (X) preferred.

ABOUT FAA

The College of Fine and Applied Arts is home to the School of Architecture, School of Art & Design, Department of Dance, Japan House, Krannert Art Museum, Krannert Center for the Performing Arts, Department of Landscape Architecture, School of Music, Sustainable Design Program, Department of Theatre, and the Department of Urban & Regional Planning.