

SCHOOL OF ART & DESIGN

The A. Doyle Moore International Travel Fund Application

The A. Doyle Moore International Travel Fund is used to support the overseas study and travel of students in graphic design at the University of Illinois. The travel funds provided should not be the exclusive source of funding for study abroad, but instead should supplement other sources of support and should be applied to one semester ahead of travel. The amount awarded may vary year to year.

To apply

Email one PDF that includes the information outlined below (Applicant Information, Essay, Resume, Budget) to art@illinois.edu.

Applications due October 15 (spring) | March 15 (summer/fall)

Applicant Information

- Today's Date
- Full Name
- UIN
- Email address
- Year in Graphic Design (if applicable)
- Year in DRI (if applicable)
- Country and Name of School or Event for application
- Proposed Dates of Travel

Essay (not to exceed 500 words)

- Please provide a detailed description of what you plan to accomplish during your time studying abroad. How do your study abroad plans help you achieve your academic goals? How will this experience have a positive impact on your life and your goals for your future?

Resume

- Please provide a current resume

Budget

- Please itemize travel costs, registration fees or other expenditures directly related to the activity.

Please be advised that this scholarship may affect your eligibility for other financial aid. If you have already received financial aid for this academic year, contact the Office of Student Financial Aid immediately at 217-333-0100 or finaid@illinois.edu to ask what impact this scholarship will have on your other financial aid, and when that adjustment will be reflected on your student account. This scholarship will be disbursed to your student account and applied to your outstanding balance. Any credit balance will be refunded by direct deposit to your designated bank account on file with the university. This refund may be processed before your other financial aid has been adjusted, in which case you may have to repay part or all of the refunded amount. This scholarship will be reported to you and the IRS on Form 1098-T by University Student Financial Services and Cashier Operations (USFSCO). If this scholarship is for unqualified expenses (e.g. room, board, travel, research, non-mandatory fees, books or supplies), it is taxable income to the recipient. It is your responsibility to determine and report to the IRS taxable scholarships, fellowships and/or grants received. See IRS Publication 970 for an explanation of taxable scholarships.