

ARCH 571 Design: Detail & Architectonics, section E2

Class Days/Time:	MW 1-6 PM
Modality:	Hybrid. In person and online meetings
Course Credit:	6 hours
CRN:	54639
Studio Instructor:	Plym Distinguished Professor Solano Benitez Andrea
Studio Coordinator:	Melgarejo de Berry Teaching Assistant Professor. Illinois School of Architecture

Re-viewing the architectural heritage: The Erlanger House

Instructor: Plym Distinguished Professor Solano Benitez

This studio will explore the history and current state of the Erlanger House, an historical house designed by Jack Baker located in a residential neighborhood in Urbana, Illinois. Completed in 1964 for Margaret Erlanger, then Professor of dance at the University of Illinois.

After a deep understanding and reflection of the architecture, its current uses and needs, the studio will propose an intervention that reflects on the following points: length, width, height, time, materiality and constructability as elements to make architecture.

The studio will contemplate and deliberate on a proposal that will respond and enhance the experience this astounding house.