

QNTA LABORATIONS

Critical Spatial Practices in the Americas and the Caribbean

Rooted in epistemologies from the South, these practitioners challenge dominant narratives and seek to redefine design practices that emerge from and respond to the region's distinct histories, knowledges, and identities. This panel exhibits how these leaders reframe spatial design by embedding it within their communities' social, cultural, and environmental dimensions

Yazmin M. Crespo-Claudio
Puerto Rico

Elisa Silva
Venezuela

David J Isern
Peru

Magdalena Novoa
Chile

Nov 18, 2024
Plym Auditorium
Monday, 06:00 PM