

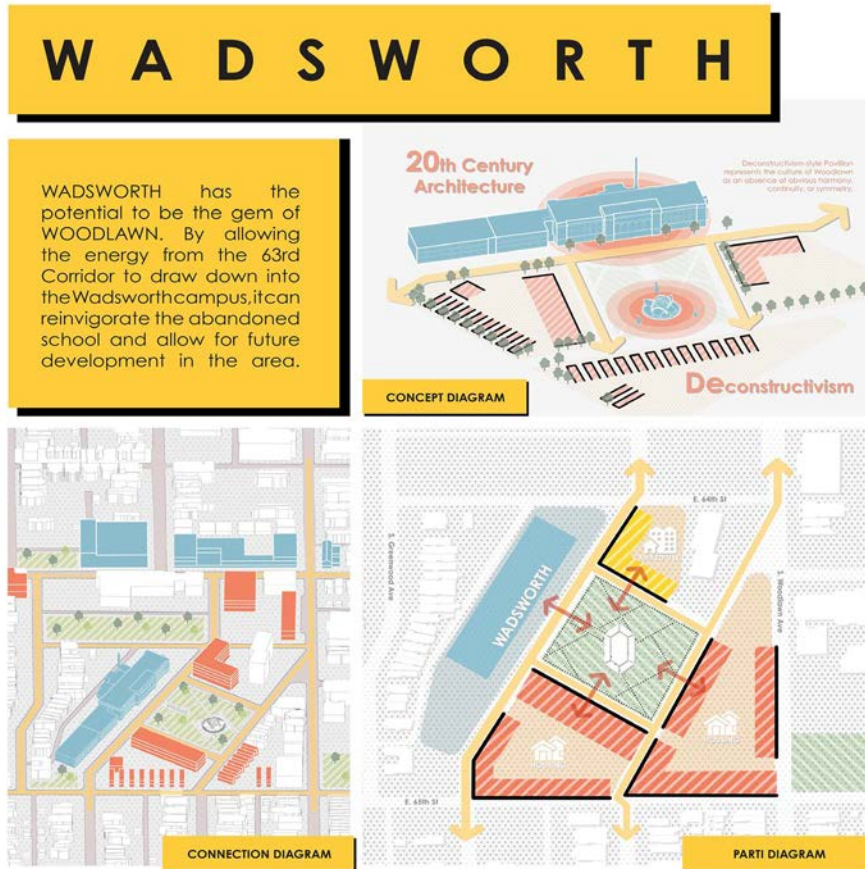

Image 1

Course number: ARCH 474

Studio name and semester: Chicago Studio: Woodlawn, Spring 2021

Faculty name: Kevin Hinders

Studio Description: This studio is a research/ service/learning opportunity for University of Illinois Urbana Champaign architecture students. The Chicago Studio-Woodlawn explores some of the possibilities raised in the City of Chicago Department of Planning and Development's Woodlawn Consolidation Report, May 2020 and the previous reports it is based upon. Mobilizing the student/faculty workforce, this investigation is an attempt to connect studies undertaken in the past seven years with a path the neighborhood can use to bring about positive change for existing residents which will enhance the neighborhood and aid the Woodlawn community to empower themselves to make the improvements they see as bettering their community.

Caption: Image 1: Wadsworth reconfiguration of public space
Michael Rivera

Image 2

Course number: ARCH 474

Studio name and semester: Chicago Studio: Woodlawn, Spring 2021

Faculty name: Kevin Hinders

Studio Description: This studio is a research/ service/learning opportunity for University of Illinois Urbana Champaign architecture students. The Chicago Studio-Woodlawn explores some of the possibilities raised in the City of Chicago Department of Planning and Development's Woodlawn Consolidation Report, May 2020 and the previous reports it is based upon. Mobilizing the student/faculty workforce, this investigation is an attempt to connect studies undertaken in the past seven years with a path the neighborhood can use to bring about positive change for existing residents which will enhance the neighborhood and aid the Woodlawn community to empower themselves to make the improvements they see as bettering their community.

Caption: Image 2: Wadsworth reconfiguration of public space
Michael Rivera

Image 3

Course number: ARCH 474

Studio name and semester: Chicago Studio: Woodlawn, Spring 2021

Faculty name: Kevin Hinders

Studio Description: This studio is a research/ service/learning opportunity for University of Illinois Urbana Champaign architecture students. The Chicago Studio-Woodlawn explores some of the possibilities raised in the City of Chicago Department of Planning and Development's Woodlawn Consolidation Report, May 2020 and the previous reports it is based upon. Mobilizing the student/faculty workforce, this investigation is an attempt to connect studies undertaken in the past seven years with a path the neighborhood can use to bring about positive change for existing residents which will enhance the neighborhood and aid the Woodlawn community to empower themselves to make the improvements they see as bettering their community.

Caption: Image 3- Till Gardens Restaurant and Greenhouses
Akash Mattu

Image 4

ATRIUM DINING ROOM 2

Course number: ARCH 474

Studio name and semester: Chicago Studio: Woodlawn, Spring 2021

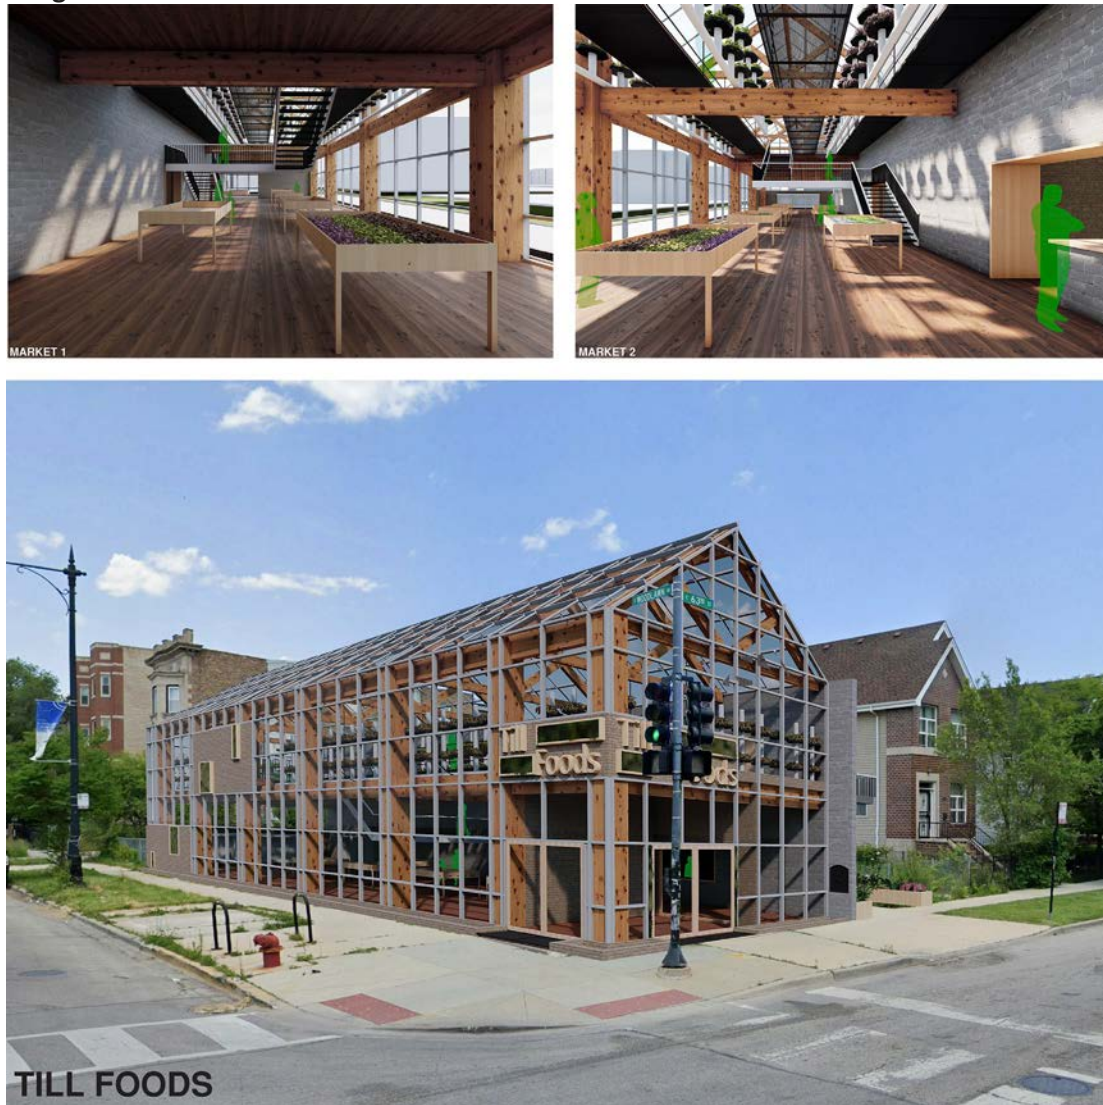

Faculty name: Kevin Hinders

Studio Description: This studio is a research/ service/learning opportunity for University of Illinois Urbana Champaign architecture students. The Chicago Studio-Woodlawn explores some of the possibilities raised in the City of Chicago Department of Planning and Development's Woodlawn Consolidation Report, May 2020 and the previous reports it is based upon. Mobilizing the student/faculty workforce, this investigation is an attempt to connect studies undertaken in the past seven years with a path the neighborhood can use to bring about positive change for existing residents which will enhance the neighborhood and aid the Woodlawn community to empower themselves to make the improvements they see as bettering their community.

Caption: Image 4- Till Gardens Restaurant and Greenhouses

Akash Mattu

Image 5

Course number: ARCH 474

Studio name and semester: Chicago Studio: Woodlawn, Spring 2021

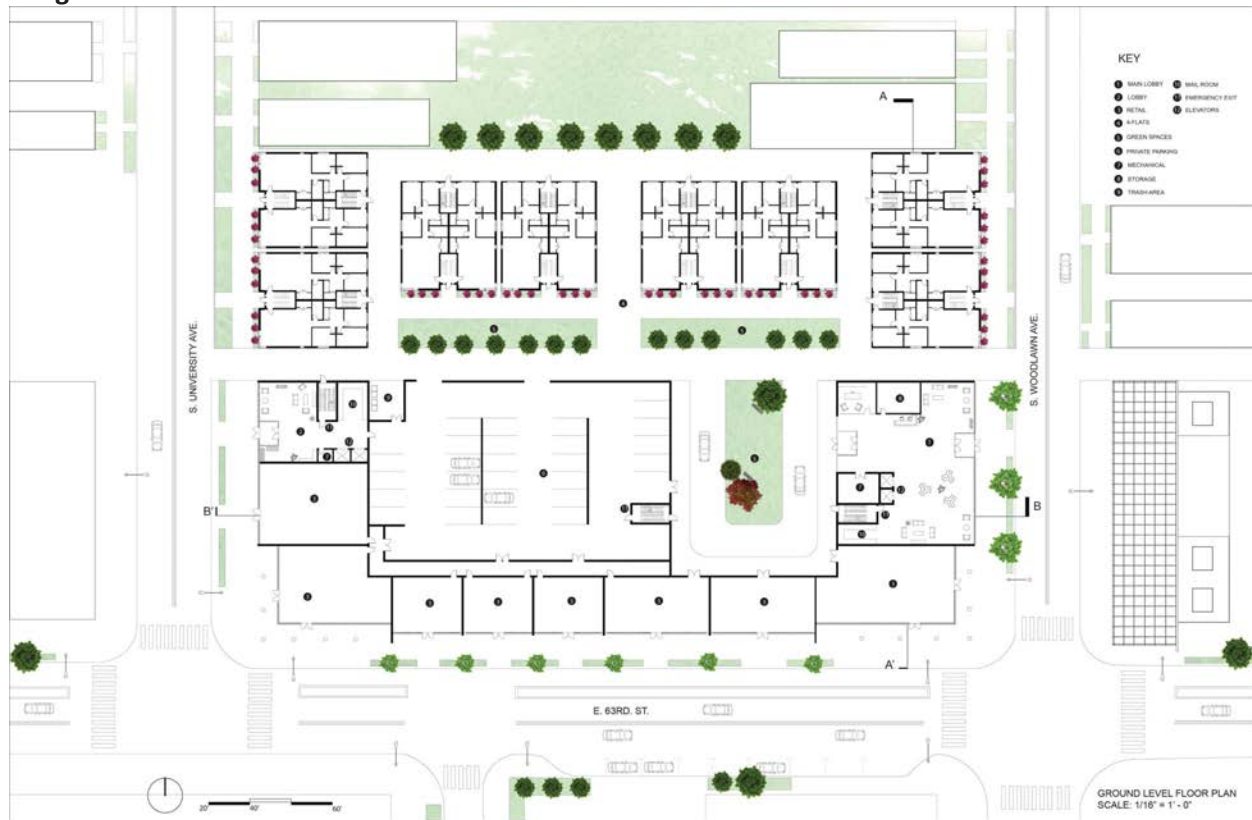

Faculty name: Kevin Hinders

Studio Description: This studio is a research/ service/learning opportunity for University of Illinois Urbana Champaign architecture students. The Chicago Studio-Woodlawn explores some of the possibilities raised in the City of Chicago Department of Planning and Development's Woodlawn Consolidation Report, May 2020 and the previous reports it is based upon. Mobilizing the student/faculty workforce, this investigation is an attempt to connect studies undertaken in the past seven years with a path the neighborhood can use to bring about positive change for existing residents which will enhance the neighborhood and aid the Woodlawn community to empower themselves to make the improvements they see as bettering their community.

Caption: Image 5- Till Gardens Restaurant and Greenhouses

Akash Mattu

Image 6

Course number: ARCH 474

Studio name and semester: Chicago Studio: Woodlawn, Spring 2021

Faculty name: Kevin Hinders

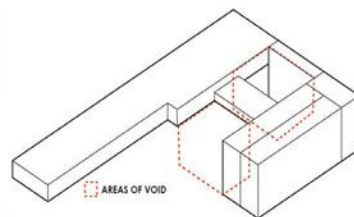

Studio Description: This studio is a research/ service/learning opportunity for University of Illinois Urbana Champaign architecture students. The Chicago Studio-Woodlawn explores some of the possibilities raised in the City of Chicago Department of Planning and Development's Woodlawn Consolidation Report, May 2020 and the previous reports it is based upon. Mobilizing the student/faculty workforce, this investigation is an attempt to connect studies undertaken in the past seven years with a path the neighborhood can use to bring about positive change for existing residents which will enhance the neighborhood and aid the Woodlawn community to empower themselves to make the improvements they see as bettering their community.

Caption: Image 6- Mixed Use Development at 63rd and Woodlawn Ave.
Jenifer Romero Marquez

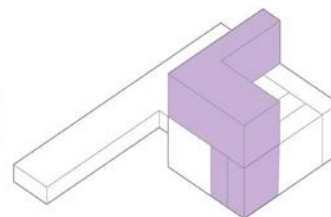

Image 7

GROUND LEVEL PROGRAMMING ZONING

SOLID VS VOID VOLUMETRIC FORM

OFFICE PROGRAMMING VOLUMETRIC FORM

Course number: ARCH 474

Studio name and semester: Chicago Studio: Woodlawn, Spring 2021

Faculty name: Kevin Hinders

Studio Description: This studio is a research/ service/learning opportunity for University of Illinois Urbana Champaign architecture students. The Chicago Studio-Woodlawn explores some of the possibilities raised in the City of Chicago Department of Planning and Development's Woodlawn Consolidation Report, May 2020 and the previous reports it is based upon. Mobilizing the student/faculty workforce, this investigation is an attempt to connect studies undertaken in the past seven years with a path the neighborhood can use to bring about positive change for existing residents which will enhance the neighborhood and aid the Woodlawn community to empower themselves to make the improvements they see as bettering their community.

Caption: Image 7- Green Line Station at Cottage Grove and 63rd Street (L Station, Library & Office Building)

Curtis Howard

Image 8

Course number: ARCH 474

Studio name and semester: Chicago Studio: Woodlawn, Spring 2021

Faculty name: Kevin Hinders

Studio Description: This studio is a research/ service/learning opportunity for University of Illinois Urbana Champaign architecture students. The Chicago Studio-Woodlawn explores some of the possibilities raised in the City of Chicago Department of Planning and Development's Woodlawn Consolidation Report, May 2020 and the previous reports it is based upon. Mobilizing the student/faculty workforce, this investigation is an attempt to connect studies undertaken in the past seven years with a path the neighborhood can use to bring about positive change for existing residents which will enhance the neighborhood and aid the Woodlawn community to empower themselves to make the improvements they see as bettering their community.

Caption: Image 8- Green Line Station at Cottage Grove and 63rd Street (L Station, Library & Office Building)

Curtis Howard

Image 9

Course number: ARCH 474

Studio name and semester: Chicago Studio: Woodlawn, Spring 2021

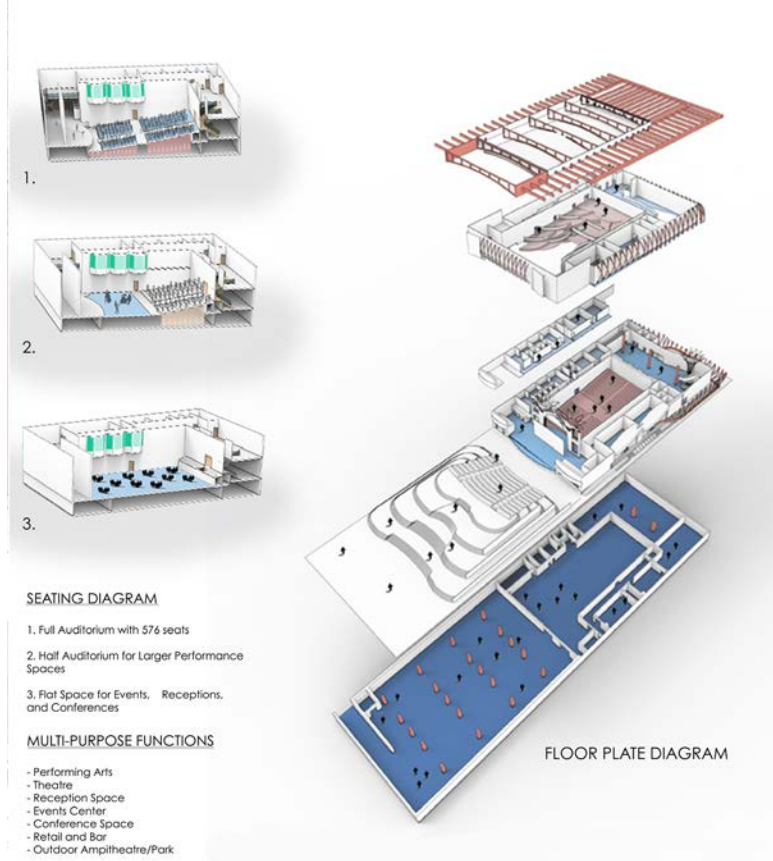

Faculty name: Kevin Hinders

Studio Description: This studio is a research/ service/learning opportunity for University of Illinois Urbana Champaign architecture students. The Chicago Studio-Woodlawn explores some of the possibilities raised in the City of Chicago Department of Planning and Development's Woodlawn Consolidation Report, May 2020 and the previous reports it is based upon. Mobilizing the student/faculty workforce, this investigation is an attempt to connect studies undertaken in the past seven years with a path the neighborhood can use to bring about positive change for existing residents which will enhance the neighborhood and aid the Woodlawn community to empower themselves to make the improvements they see as bettering their community.

Caption: Image 9- Green Line Station at Cottage Grove and 63rd Street (L Station, Library & Office Building)

Curtis Howard

Image 10

Course number: ARCH 474

Studio name and semester: Chicago Studio: Woodlawn, Spring 2021

Faculty name: Kevin Hinders

Studio Description: This studio is a research/ service/learning opportunity for University of Illinois Urbana Champaign architecture students. The Chicago Studio-Woodlawn explores some of the possibilities raised in the City of Chicago Department of Planning and Development's Woodlawn Consolidation Report, May 2020 and the previous reports it is based upon. Mobilizing the student/faculty workforce, this investigation is an attempt to connect studies undertaken in the past seven years with a path the neighborhood can use to bring about positive change for existing residents which will enhance the neighborhood and aid the Woodlawn community to empower themselves to make the improvements they see as bettering their community.

Caption: Image 10- New Performing Arts and Community Venue
Brooke Salyer